General

On our website, we use functional cookies and similar technologies (all referred to as cookies) to give you the best user experience. You agree to this cookie use by clicking "agree" below or by continuing to use our website. If you would like more information, please click on More information.

"What is a cookie?"

The website of PR unplugged.com makes use of cookies. A cookie is a small data file that is placed on the hard disk of your computer. These cookies contain no personal information and we only use them to make the site more user friendly for our visitors. Most browsers are set up by default to accept cookies. However, you can set your browser to refuse cookies or to warn you when a site wants to place a cookie.

Permanent cookies

With the help of a permanent cookie, we can recognise you when you visit our website again. The website can therefore be adjusted to your preferences. Also when you have given permission for placing cookies, we can remember this by means of a cookie. This saves you having to repeat your preferences over and over again, which saves you time and makes it easier for you to use our website. You can remove permanent cookies via your browser settings.

Session cookies

Using a session cookie, we can see which parts of the website you have viewed during this visit. This enables us to adapt our service as much as possible to the surfing behaviour of our visitors. These cookies are automatically deleted as soon as you close your web browser.

Google Analytics

Through our website, a cookie is placed by the US company Google as part of the "Analytics" service. We use this service to track and get reports about how visitors use the website. Google may provide this information to third parties if Google is legally obliged to do so, or insofar as third parties process the information on Google's behalf. We have no influence on this. We have not authorised Google to use the analytics information obtained for other Google services.

The information Google collects is anonymised as far as possible. Your IP address is expressly not provided. The information is transferred to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google states that it adheres to the Privacy Shield principles and is affiliated to the Privacy Shield program of the U.S. Department of Commerce. This means that there is an adequate level of protection for the processing of any personal data.

Right to access, correct and delete personal data:

You have the right to request access to and correction or deletion of your data. In order to prevent abuse, we may ask you to provide adequate identification. When it comes to access to personal data linked to a cookie, you must send a copy of the cookie in question. You can find this in the settings of your browser.

Deletion of cookies:

More information on enabling, disabling and deleting cookies can be found in the instructions and/or by using the Help function of your browser."
